

is that right? A. Yes, sir.

Q Do you know anything about any difference between his occupancy of the farm after the first of April than it was before the first of April, 1941?

A Well, you mean how he carried it through?

Q Yes, anything different? Did he consult your husband after the first of April, 1941 about the crops?

A Yes, sir, he always told him what to do and how to put them out and what to do.

Q Did he do that after the first of April, 1941? A. Yes.

Q Do you know anything about any fertilizer for corn in April, 1941?

A Well, I know they talked about it, about getting the fertilizer. After Daddy died the fertilizer came there, right after Daddy died, but I don't know when they got it.

Q Do you know who paid the taxes?

A Daddy paid the taxes.

Q For 1941?

A Yes, because I brought the bill in to you, didn't I?

Q Do you know anything about any fire insurance on this place becoming due? A. Daddy paid.

Q He paid that? A. Yes.

Q Has it become due since your husband died?

A Yes, I brought the bill in to you when it came due this April, wasn't it?

Q Do you know who paid that?

A Indeed I don't. I brought the bill it to you when I noticed it was out - the fire company.

CROSS EXAM. BY MR. FELTON:

Q Mrs. Stull, the fertilizer that you talked about was brought over to the home place where you and Mr. Stull lived?

A Yes.
